

Group Tours – Ideas For Places To Visit

If your group is using our beautiful residential centre at Foxton, Cambridgeshire as its base for exploring this area, there are numerous attractions within an hour or so's drive which you might like to include in your visits:

- City of Cambridge – so many possibilities including
 - Historic colleges of the university
 - The incomparable King's College Chapel
 - Fitzwilliam Museum
 - Botanic Garden
 - Punting on the Cam
 - Kettles Yard art gallery
 - The Polar Museum and many other museums
- Ely Cathedral
- St Albans Abbey and Roman site (Verulamium)
- Imperial War Museum Duxford
- The Shuttleworth Collection
- American Cemetery & Memorial
- Wimpole Hall, Anglesey Abbey, Ickworth and Melford Hall (National Trust)
- Audley End House and Wrest Park (English Heritage)
- Kentwell Hall
- Farmland Museum & Denny Abbey
- Burghley House
- Helmingham Hall Gardens
- Euston Hall
- Beautiful towns and villages with a wealth of medieval buildings and "wool" churches – including Saffron Walden, Thaxted, Bury St Edmunds, Lavenham and Long Melford
- Innumerable lovely medieval churches (highlights include St Mary Magdalene at Ickleton for its wall paintings; St Wendreda at March for its angel roof; St Kyneburgh at Castor for its Norman tower and capitals)
- Henry Moore Studios & Gardens
- Countryside and wetlands:
 - Fowlmere, The Lodge and Ouse Washes (RSPB)
 - Fen Drayton Lakes
 - Welney Wetland Centre
 - Wicken Fen and Hatfield Forest (National Trust)

We can help you to arrange your visits, but we will have to include the administration costs in our charges to you, or you can simply book our venue on a dinner, bed & breakfast basis. How much of the arrangements are done by your group organiser and how much by us will be part of the discussion before we finalise your booking and agree the price for your stay.